

Q&A with Nicolas David Ngan

How did you first find out about the system you describe in Your Soul Contract Decoded?

In 1990, at the beginning of my spiritual journey of awakening, I walked into a hotel room in Phoenix, Arizona, as part of a week long spiritual training called the Carousel of Growth. This was for a Spiritual Numerology of Moses Reading with Frank Alper, who originally channelled this work through in the 1980s. He converted my birth certificate name into phonetic Hebrew sounds on a Star of David. Out of these phonetic sounds he extracted the equivalent Hebrew numbers. Over the next hour Frank used interpretations of these numbers to completely decode my entire life. He put all of my disparate life experiences into place, and I saw the complete order and truth that was present. My life made sense for the first time. I no longer felt lost and without direction, and I no longer felt that life was some strange mystery where seemingly random events kept happening to me. At last, I finally understood why all those things had happened, and that there was an underlying Spiritual Map to it all created by my soul. I had connected to my Life Purpose for the very first time, and that resonated within me at a very deep soul level. I had come home and had found myself at last.

Is it true that all you need is the names on your birth certificate to figure out the plan of your life? If so, how could that be?

Sound is creative. The first sound was the sound of God creating Creation. As above so below. Your soul chooses the sounds of your birth certificate name very carefully in order to create the incarnate experiences it desires. When you are named at birth and this is registered on the birth certificate this fully activates your Soul Contract. The sounds vibrations of your name are contained in your DNA and throughout your physical and energetic bodies. These radiate out to the reality and by the Law of Attraction create your reality in each moment. The Spiritual Map of your life is decoded by converting your written birth certificate name into the equivalent phonetic Hebrew sounds. Out of these phonetic sounds we extract the equivalent Hebrew numbers. When we analyse these numbers on a Star of David we obtain seven aspects which describe the Spiritual Map of your life. These are the karma/challenges you face, the talents you have to overcome them and the goals/dreams you hope to achieve in life. This is in both the physical and spiritual areas of your life. The sum total of these six aspects produce your soul/life purpose.

The book contains a set of really interesting, unique symbols that form the basis of your Soul Contract. Where did they come from?

The symbols associated with the 22 Ancient Hebrew letters used on the Soul Contract Reading work, come from Spirit and were channelled through Frank Alper, the creator of this system of divination. They are like energy antennae and draw in the frequencies of each letter. They talk energetically to you, transmitting the meaning of that particular letter.

Doing Soul Contract work is a second career for you. What were you doing before?

I studied chemical engineering in New Zealand, and worked in research and then in the oil industry implementing artificial intelligence marketing systems. I travelled extensively throughout South East Asia experiencing how spirituality was much more a part of people's everyday lives than in the West. I taught English as a second language in Tokyo, and worked in technical translation rewriting. I then travelled around Western Europe, absorbing all the Old World culture,

From 1990 I worked in London at Inmarsat (International Mobile Satellite Organisation) in global mobile satellite communications on the commercial development of cutting edge global communication services such as hand-held satellite phones, broadband at your seat in airliners, enhancing aircraft navigation, eventually becoming a project manager. During this time I was travelling to the Arizona regularly to receive my spiritual training. I also started a weekend alternative therapy practice.

In 1996 while on a spiritual holiday in Spain, I woke up one morning and as I observed the sunrise, felt deep inside that I could no longer do my corporate job. Something much deeper was calling me. I left the corporate world in 1997 and travelled to the Americas and Asia and was guided to visit many sacred sites and went up high in the Andes and the Himalayas. I was being reconnected to high frequency spiritual energies. This was preparation and awakening for the next stage of my life. I ended up returning to London in 1998 and turned my weekend alternative therapy practice into a full time spiritual business. I transitioned from chemical to soul engineer, from the scientific to the spiritual mind. Helping people to uncover, reconnect to and express the gifts of their soul. In 2002, I established the Center for Conscious Ascension with Dr Ahlmeirah Ariel Hallaire as a vehicle for accelerating the raising of human consciousness.
